Queensland Register of Lobbyists

Registration Form

Integrity Act 2009 (sections 53 and 90)

* Please note: Before a person or organisation can be registered as a lobbyist on the Queensland Register of Lobbyists, this form must be completed, signed and sent to the Queensland Integrity Commissioner with all relevant statutory declarations.

Since 1 January 2010, registration requirements have been regulated by the Integrity Act 2009 (the Act). The Act also requires information about former senior government representatives who undertake lobbying activities to be displayed on the Register.

An application for registration may be refused or an existing registration may be cancelled or suspended on any of the following grounds:

- a. the application includes, or the existing registrant was registered because of, a materially false or misleading representation or declaration;
- b. the entity or a proposed listed person applying for registration has previously failed, or an existing registered entity fails, to comply with obligations under the Lobbyists Code of Conduct or a requirement under chapter 4 of the Act; or
- c. other grounds that the Integrity Commissioner considers sufficient.

Privacy statement: The personal information on this form is collected by the Integrity Commissioner as required under the Integrity Act 2009 for the primary purpose of fulfilling the requirements of the Act with regard to registration as a lobbyist.

Except as otherwise required or authorised by law, the personal information collected through this form will only be used for registration purposes. Information concerning you, your employees and your clients will be made publicly available for inspection on the Register of Lobbyists located at www.integrity.gld.gov.au. The following personal information may be seen by any person with access to this website:

- · the business registration details, including the names of owners, partners or major shareholders, as applicable;
- the names and positions of persons employed, contracted or otherwise engaged by the lobbyist to carry out lobbying activities;
- the names of third parties for whom the lobbyist is currently retained to provide paid or unpaid services as a lobbyist, and whether or not the lobbyist may receive a success fee for these services;
- · the names of persons for whom the lobbyist has provided paid or unpaid services as a lobbyist during the previous twelve months; and
- the names of persons who are former senior government representatives within State, Commonwealth and local government.

A lobbyist should only provide personal information about individual clients or employees with the permission of those individuals. A failure to provide all the necessary personal information will, however, prevent the application being considered. Applicants should rely on their own inquiries about the impact of seeking registration on their existing privacy obligations (if any).

Lobbyists are required by law to apply for inclusion on the Register. Lobbyists who are not listed in the Register are prohibited from lobbying government representatives.

Lodgement: Completed forms and statutory declarations can be submitted to the Integrity Commissioner by email to: lobbyistsregister@integrity.qld.gov.au (preferred option). Alternatively, they can be sent by fax to (07) 3224 2326 or posted to:
