

Integrity Committee Meeting

Wednesday, 9 October 2019

1.30pm – 2.30pm

Office of the Integrity Commissioner
Level 13, 53 Albert Street, Brisbane

Chair:	Mark Glen	Acting Queensland Integrity Commissioner
Attendees:	Alan MacSporran QC	Chair, Crime and Corruption Commission
	Pat Vidgen	Electoral Commissioner
	Shannon Cook	Deputy Commissioner, Public Service Commission
	Ross Barnett	Racing Integrity Commissioner
	Kathleen Florian	Independent Assessor
	Louisa Lynch	Acting Information Commissioner
	Brendan Worrall	Auditor-General, Queensland Audit Office
Secretariat:	Sara Rancic	Executive Assistant, Office of the Queensland Integrity Commissioner
Apologies:	Nikola Stepanov	Integrity Committee Chair, Integrity Commissioner
	Phil Clarke	Ombudsman
	Angela Pyke	Acting Ombudsman
	Robert Setter	Commission Chief Executive, Public Service Commission
	Rachael Rangihaeata	Information Commissioner

MATTERS DISCUSSED

1. General updates (All)

1.1 Racing Integrity Commissioner

- Upcoming Human Rights Act.

1.2 Acting Information Commissioner

- Managing Unreasonable Behaviour Policy published on Office of the Information Commissioner's website.
- Solomon Lecture recording published on Office of the Information Commissioner's website.
- Annual Report has been finalised.

1.3 Chair, Crime and Corruption Commission

- Impala initiative enquiry will offer recommendations of solutions for the high numbers of complaints.

1.4 Deputy Commissioner, Public Service Commission

- Public Service Commission is reviewing collateral and will be testing this at the next Strategic Work Force Councils. Ethics training module will be provided for Executives.

1.5 Electoral Commissioner

- Electoral Commission is preparing for the 2020 Local Government Election. Recruited returning officers to assist with running all electoral events. Training commences next week.
- Local Government Change Commission is looking into boundary reviews and the final report is due to the Minister in October.
- New election management system has been developed to assist with the 2020 local government and state government elections.

1.6 Independent Assessor

- The Office of the Independent Assessor has received approximately 1,100 complaints received to date.
- Presenting at Local Government Association Queensland Conference in Cairns next week.

1.7 Auditor-General, Queensland Audit Office

- New Strategic Audit Plan to be published on website by 31 December 2019.
- After putting together a workforce plan, the Audit Office will be moving to a new operating model and expect it to be in place by Christmas.

1.8 Acting Queensland Integrity Commissioner

- Significant increase in numbers of requests and educational training sessions.
- Audit of Register of Lobbyists has been completed.
- Submitted Integrity Commissioner's Annual Report for 2018/2019 financial year.
- Future focus is looking to setup the Minister's Management Plans.

2. Agenda items

2.1 Auditor-General, Queensland Audit Office

- Report tabled to Parliament on Cyber Security
Audit completed on security program and tabled last week.

3. General business

- No general business matters discussed

Next meeting:

17 December 2019 11.30am – 12.30pm